

WebSci'18 Interdisciplinary PhD Symposium

Pete Burnap, Leslie Carr, Mark Weal, Ivar Vermeulen

Sunday 27 May 2018

Session I (10.00-12.30)

10:00 Tag Thunder: Towards new oral reading strategies for visually impaired people

Judith Jeyafreeda Andrew

10:25 Crowdsourcing Application for Responsible Production in Africa

André Baart

10:50 Cyber Hate against immigrants: an Italian case

Komal Florio

11:15

Short break

11:35 A Study on the Emergence of Online Bar Exam Training in China

Xingfang Li

12:00 Towards a data-driven social machine for online academics' profiles

Bartosz Paszcza

Session II (13.30-16.00)

13:30 Tackling the digital divide in UK schools: Young People's perspective on digital literacy education and digital use practices

Charlotte Oliver

13:55 The digital divide in Amsterdam: the perspective and needs of families with a low socio-economic position

Nicole Goedhart

14:20 An explanation of the changing relations between digital platforms and entrepreneurship in Trinidad and Tobago

Keisha Taylor

14:45

Short break

15:05 Information Access for Development: Weather Information Access for Rural Ghana

Francis Dittoh

15:30 Online participation processes in the Green Party Germany

Gefion Thuermer